Glendale Union High School

Glendale Union High School represents a vast area as school districts go. Not only does it serve the City of Glendale itself but two other communities also — Washington and Sunnyslope.

The word "serve" is the key to Glendale High, for, built by taxpayers, its purpose is to serve the people who have kept GUHS in existence since 1911.

The school is more than the 30 acres on which its numerous buildings and playing fields lie sprawling. It is more than the buildings themselves. It is a way of life, educationally speaking, and it is warm and open and human.

The buildings themselves are a jumble of old-fashioned and modern architecture, some pleasing to the eye, others aesthetic atrocities.

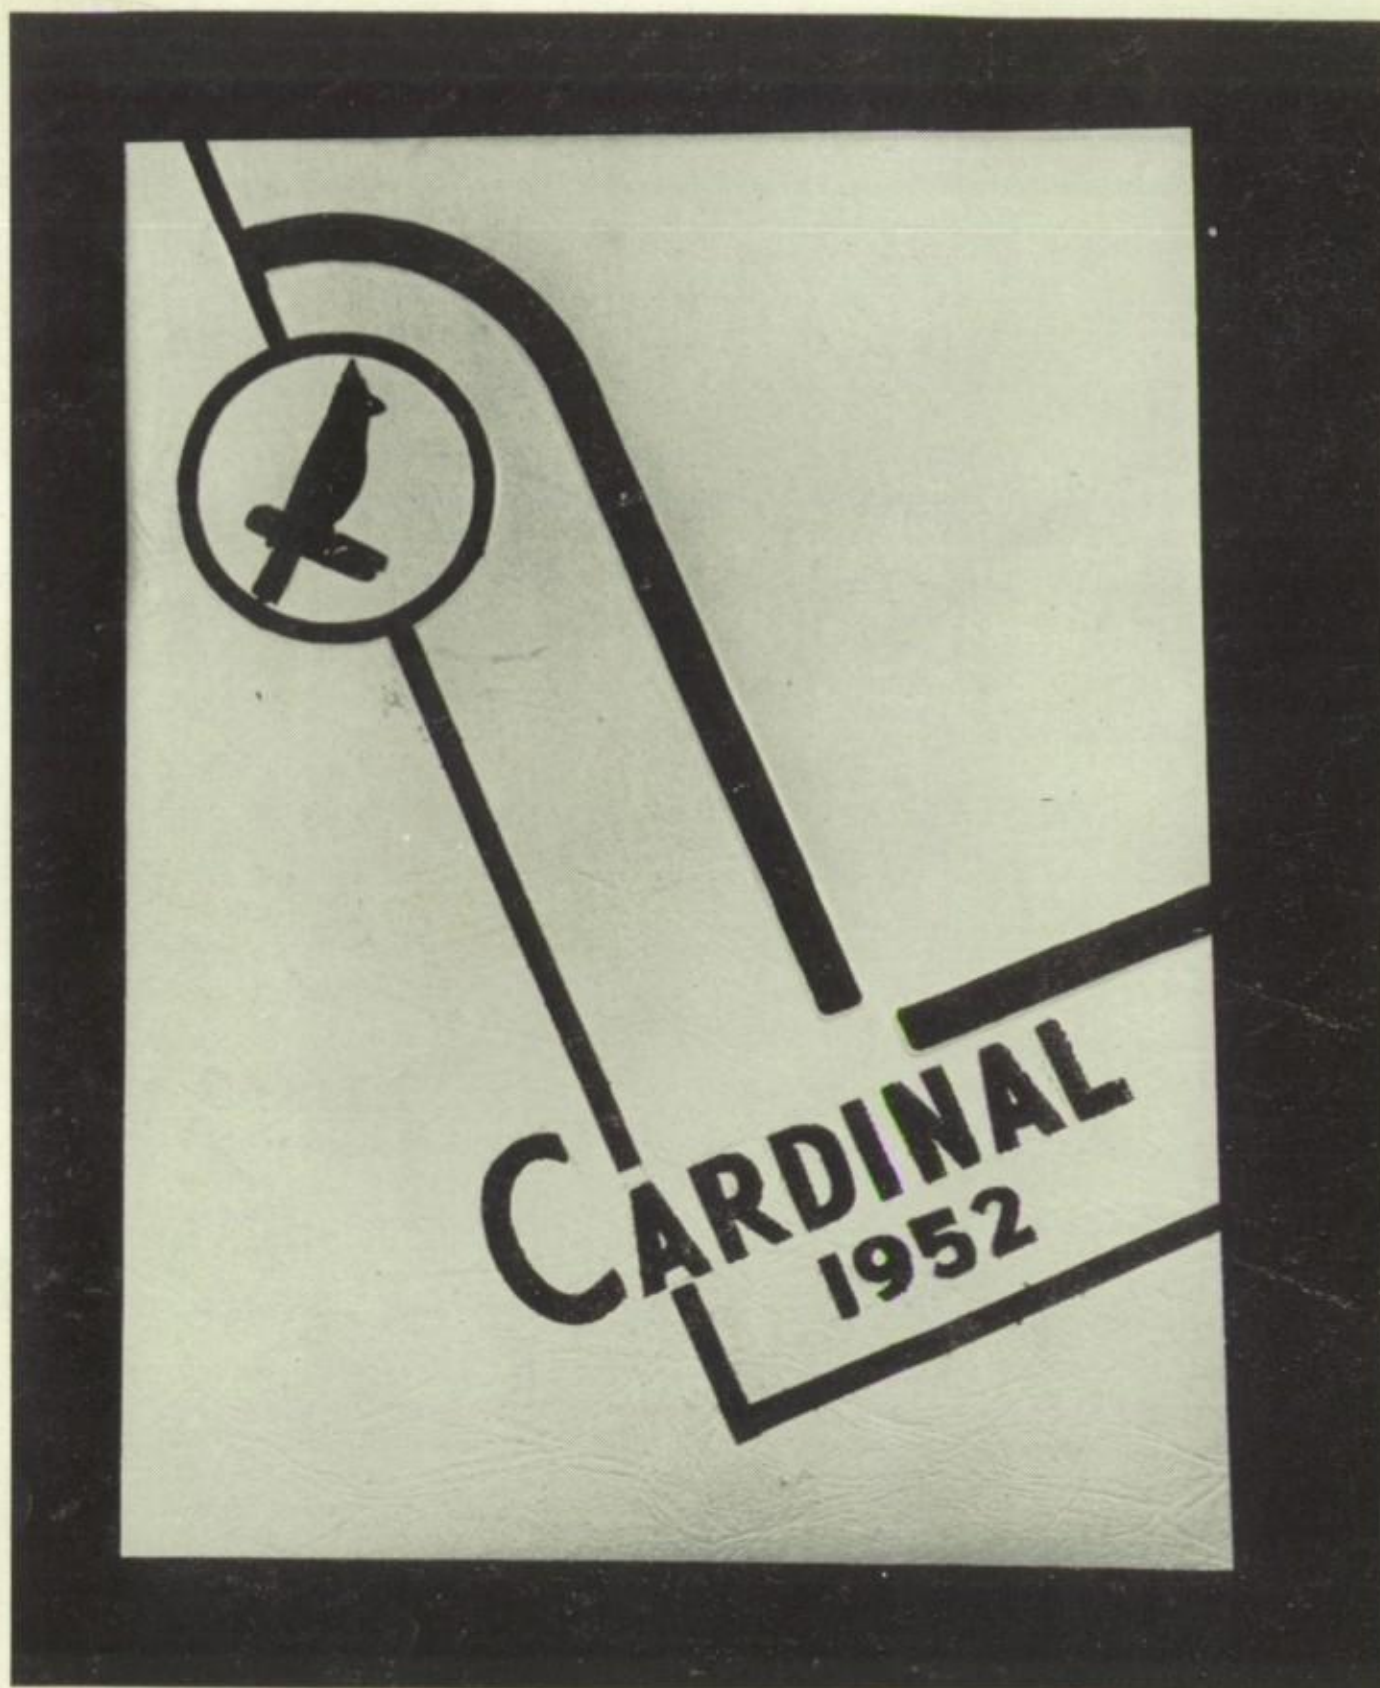

The teachers and administration are informal and intensely interested in helping the students who attend the school.

By the beginning of 1952, Glendale High will have spread its physical plant to Sunnyslope in the outer edges of the district; for as the school grows in maturity, it has grown in size.

A good place to go to school, this Glendale High.

And the Annual Staff

Scribes who have helped make the writing of the '52 Cardinal possible are, left to right, Bob Glover, Lynn Takesuye, Helen Tang, Eva Steward, Bill Roberts, and Nancy Conroy, associate editor.

In addition, the junior journalism class solicited ads, sold pictures, trimmed pictures, and identified pictures. They were a vital link in the chain of thousands of details that make up an annual.

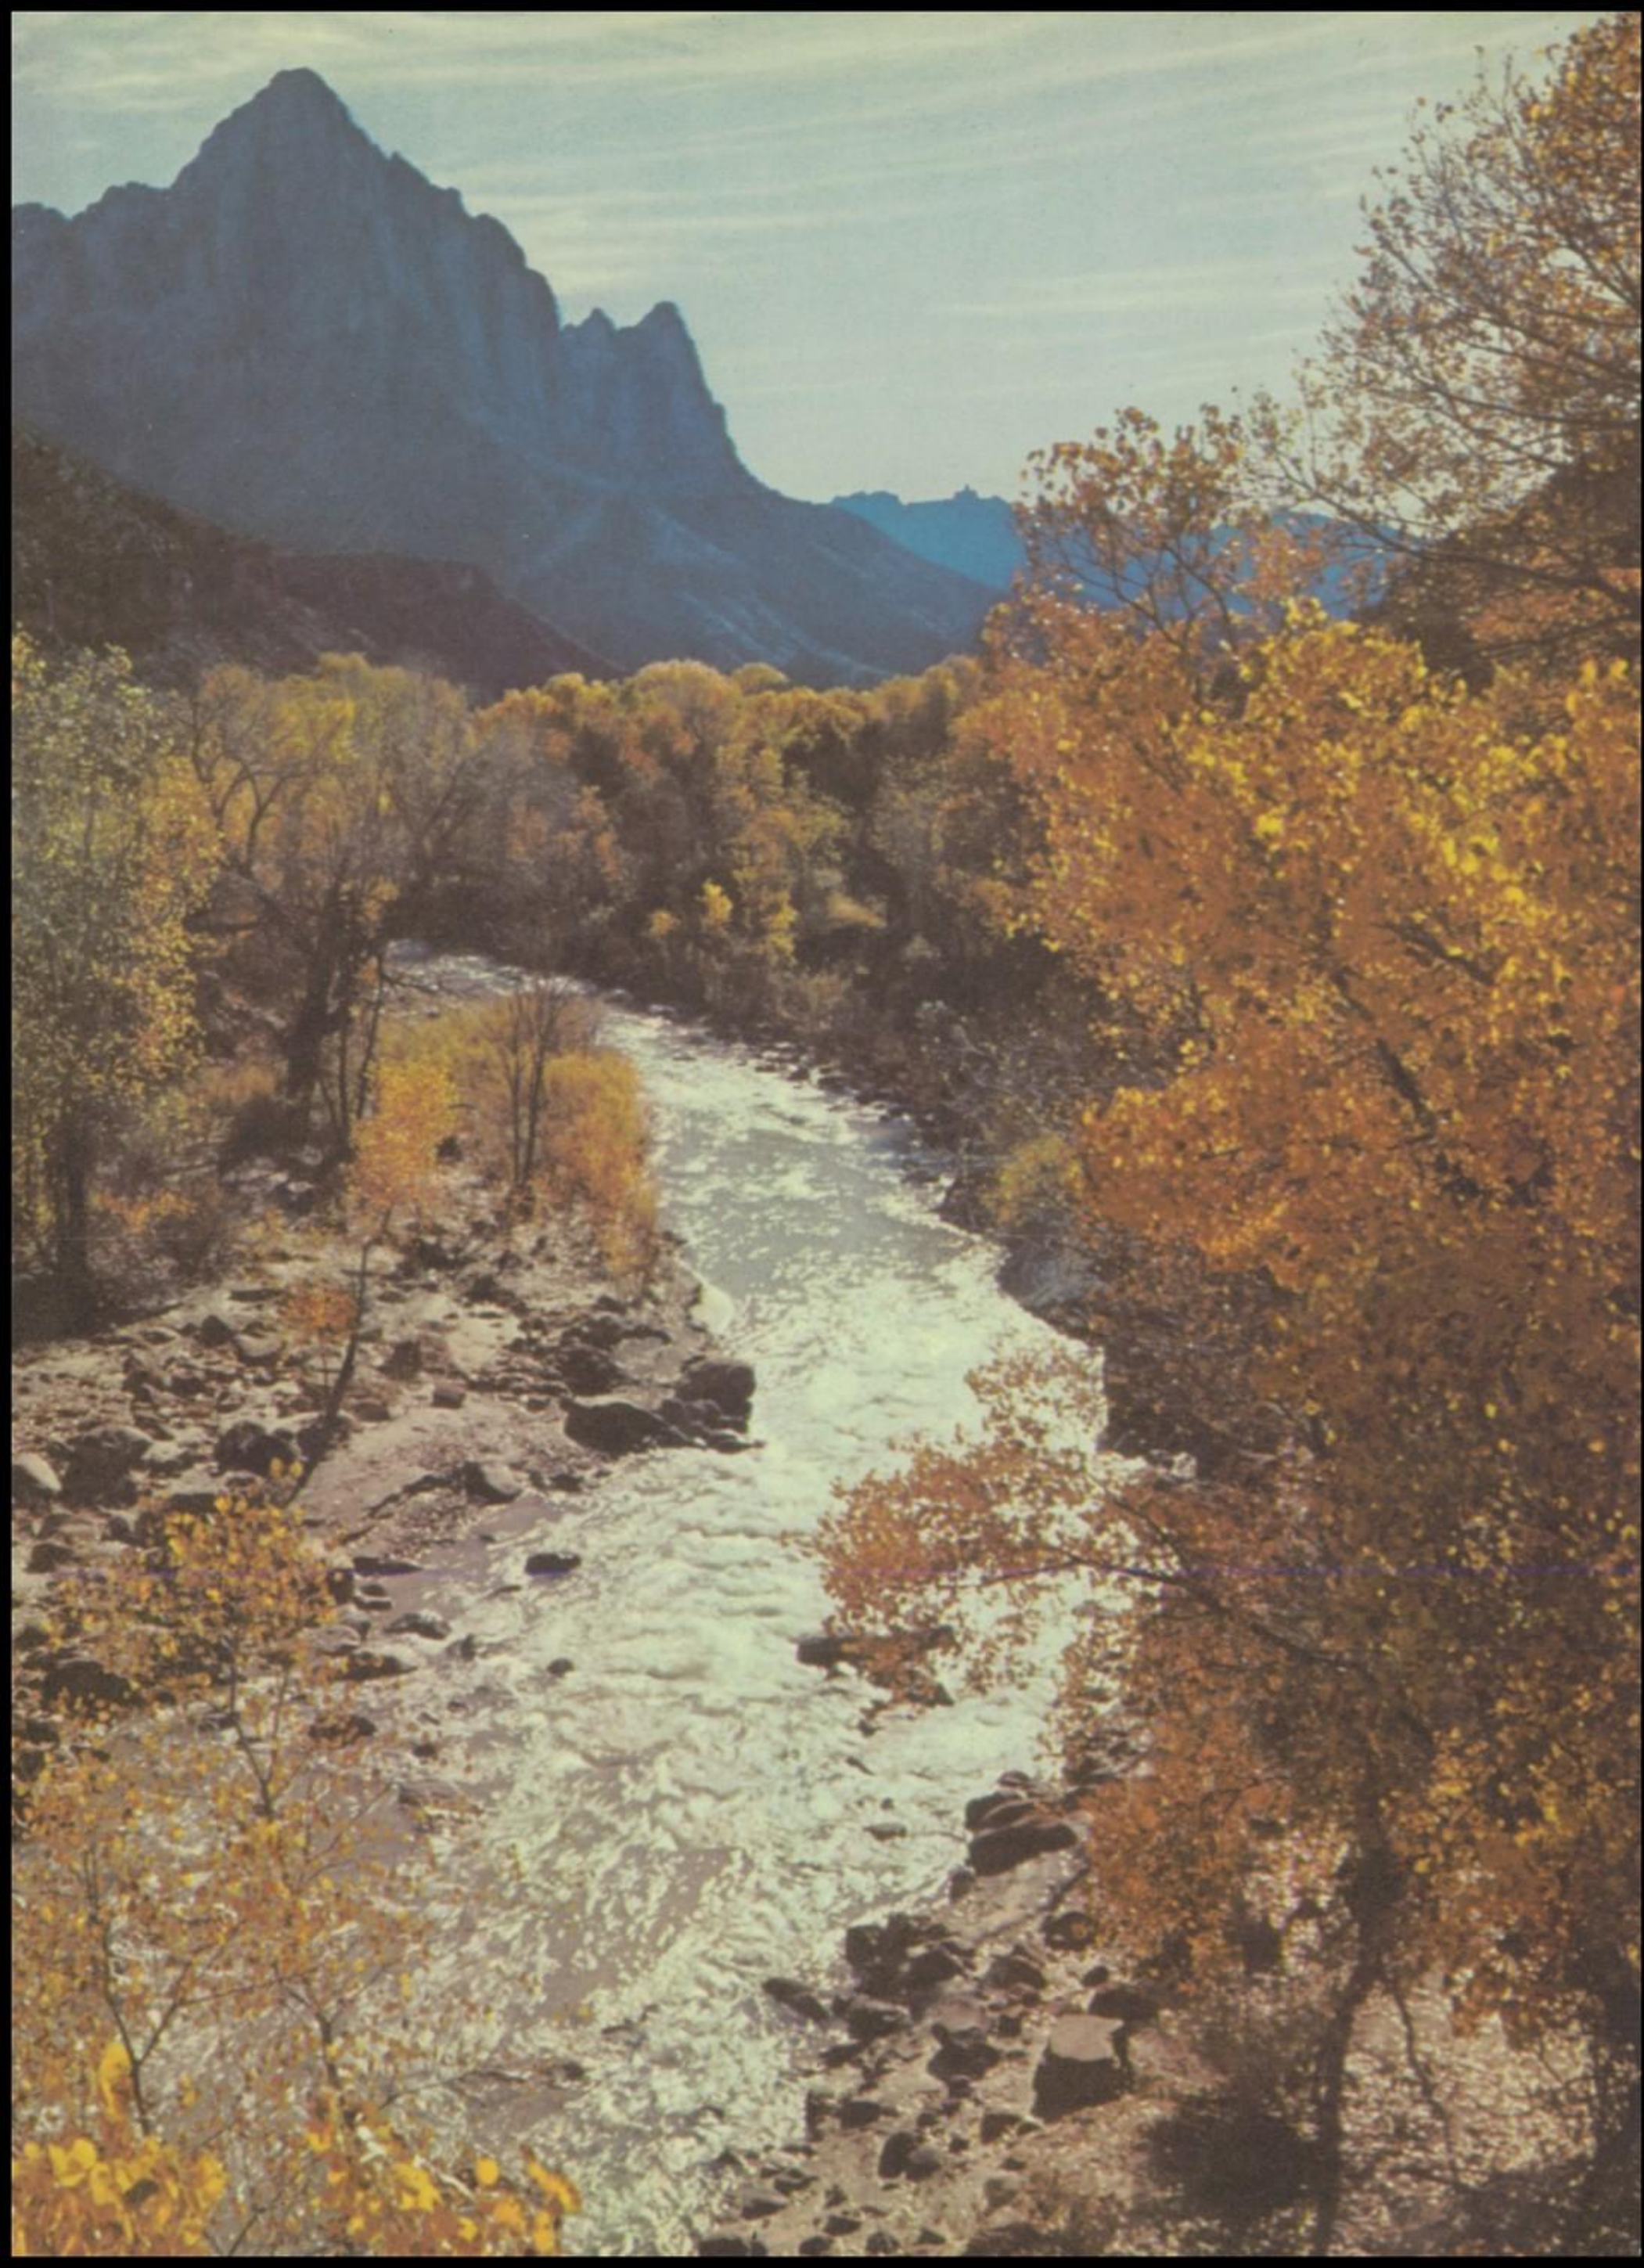

Came the Fall.

And September

Ah, September! Time of fiery leaves and registration. Time of glowing woods, and back to school. Time of crisp evenings, and football practice. With September and its companion fall months, October and November, GUHS began to shift into gear and get rolling.

School Board Meeting . . .

Typical of the representative system that has made America a democracy is the Board of Education at Glendale Union High School. Members serve the school and community without pay, selflessly seeing that the best interests of both students and taxpayers are served. Members of the board are typical of an American community, too. Dr. Trueblood is a dentist; Mr. DeBolt, owner-manager of a business; Mr. Auten, a businessman; Mr. Lowe, a manager; and Mr. Herriott, a supervisor.

Dedication—

The 1952 Cardinal is proudly and respectfully dedicated to Mr. Robert C. Scott. Those who know him can only approve of our choice of "Scotty" as being the right one. We hold him, our new vice-principal and long-time friend, in high esteem for his unselfish devotion to Glendale High and its student body. Registration, counseling, pep rallies, school spirit, assemblies, classes, driver training—these are but a few of the activities of this untiring and patient man, who has put first above all things the school and the people within it.

September— and a Host of Activities . . .

Right—Football practice started with September. Here Coaches Schmidt and Dougherty show Don Holley proper blocking form. And Don became an All-State player.

Right—And came September, came initiations. Pledges had to serve their elders and wear preposterous clothes. Here four prospective Red Masque members salaam to club members.

The four GUHS cheerleaders, left to right, Linda Gillum, Glenda Rowland, Donna Kiser, and Lynn Takesuye, teach school cheers to freshmen as part of the newcomers' orientation program. The girls worked in informal (but attractive) garb.

Story conference led by editor Nancy Conroy was held every issue to gather and assign news stories. Starting with Nancy, right, and going clockwise are Bob Glover, Lynn Takesuye, Jeanne Marks, Bernie Hill, Bill Roberts, Jack Hook, Pat Paddock, Eva Marie Steward, and Ernestine Neal. The staff did a masterful job of editing the paper on their own.

The business staff led by business manager Pat Paddock, center, was an important part of getting Hi-Lites out. They were responsible for seeing that there was sufficient money on hand to publish. Here assistants Bob Barker and Zoe Gocke are mailing papers to advertisers.

In September, the Student Council, the school administration, and Hi-Lites urged that GUHS students take enough pride in their school to keep the campus clean. The result is pictured here—a trash can standing unused by a sea of lunch-time trash, scattered by the pigs who eat on the east lawn. As a wise man once said, "Pigs is Pigs."

The Story of the Season

Glendale High's 1951 varsity football season was not a successful one according to the record books, but head coach Clyde Dougherty and line coach Czeslow Schmidt believe that the inexperienced squad gained much from the near winless season.

Playing nine games, the GUHS ironmen racked up a one-win, eight-loss tabulation—but that one win, over one of the stronger teams in the state, North Hi, was tabbed the biggest upset in the state throughout the season. Prescott tromped the Cards 31-12 on the GUHS gridiron in the opening game Friday, September 28. The next week Amphitheater of Tucson outpointed the Glendale lads 25-12. Phoenix Tech did likewise by a 14-7 count at Glendale Memorial Stadium the week after.

One fine Friday evening, October 19, a powerful North Phoenix Mustang squad galloped to Glendale but trotted homeward, tail dragging, after being trampled 20-13 by a herd of stampeding Red Birds!

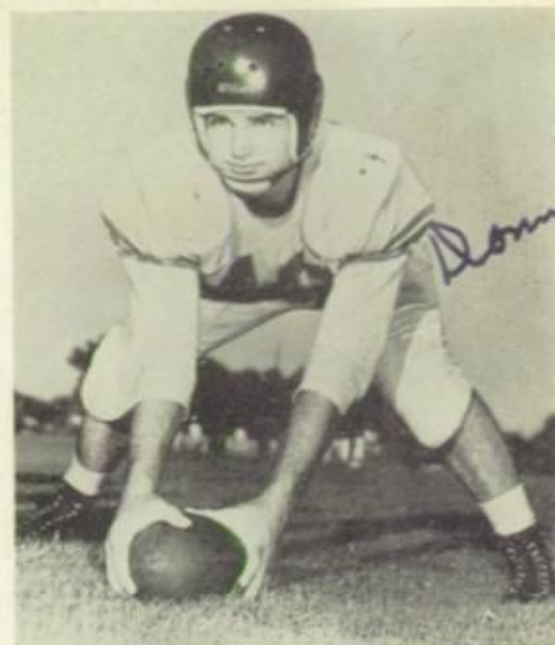

North was heavily favored but a hard-driving team quenched a thirst for a win by out-fighting the larger club.

The Cards dropped the remaining five games to various teams in the state. The St. Mary's Knights whipped GUHS by a one-sided 38-7 score at Phoenix, and the West Phoenix Thunderbirds flew by the Red Birds by a narrow 20-19.

A scrappy Tucson Badger club gnawed its way to a 55-13 victory at Glendale, and the Mesa Jackrabbits hopped over Glendale's defense and scampered to a 39-0 tally at Mesa.

The final game was played at Yuma where the Cards showed much improvement. The Criminals, however, escaped Glendale's scoring punch and nailed down a 19-6 win.

October—

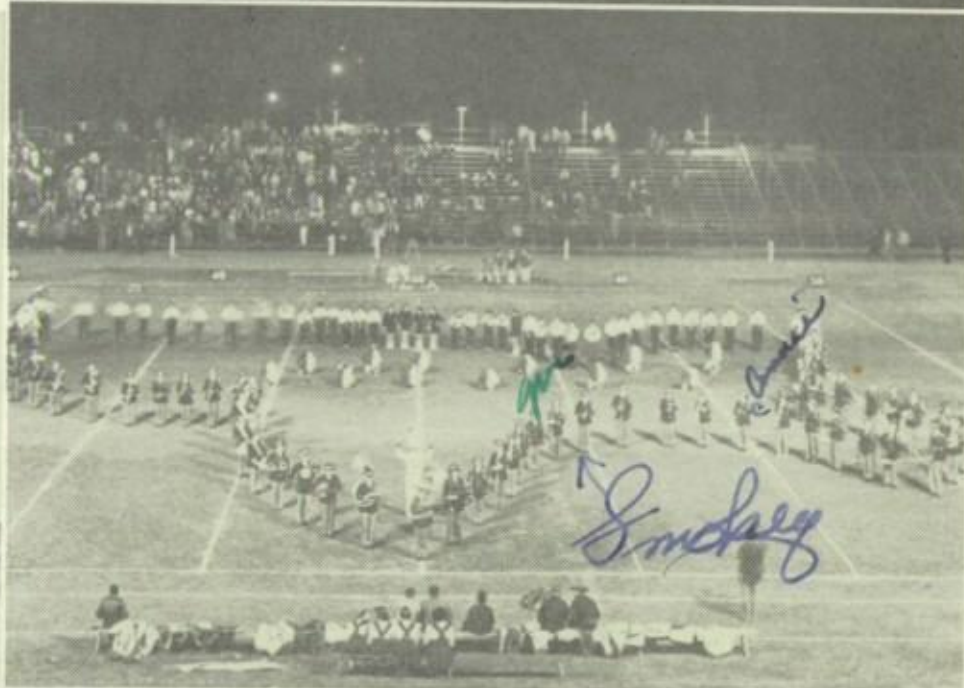

The band staged some great formations—see the three pictures on the right for proof.

Al Davis' so-called musicians became famous throughout the state for their precision and playing.

October—

We staged a Crusade for Freedom show, ate with the PTA, and had a lot of fun.

Below, McAllister, Glover, Steward, Wright, and Morgan in the Crusade assembly. Bottom left, PTA get-together with students and faculty. Bottom right, mock trial at a Girls' League assembly.

Charlie Hallmark picking up ten yards, and the new scoreboard generously given by Glendale townspeople, and Pep Club initiation, and a night rally before the North Hi upset, and then the news of the upset, and Redmanoff and his Cannibals in one of the best assemblies of the year, and more incredulous reading about THE GAME in the cafeteria. . . .

Came the Winter . . .

Ah, December! Month of the Christmas Formal and waiting for a bus in the middle of the night. Month of basketball and pounding away at studies. Month of the open heart opened wider with the Christmas spirit. Month of that blessed Christmas vacation; of pageants, and the junior play; of carols and gladness. And month of the last day of 1951.

December brought the time of the open heart and good fellowship and food for the needy and candy for the school in France and peace on earth, good will toward men.

In Short--

As It Usually Does---

Christmas Came In December

Upper left, the Pep Club visited the Crippled Children's Home in Phoenix and sang carols. Upper right, home ec girls worked on the snowman for the Christmas formal. Lower right, the kitchen was busy with preparing turkeys for needy families.

It was Christmas at GUHS!

And December
Brought the Very Fine Junior
Class Play

"My Friend Irma"

"Sparkling . . . witty . . ."
The New York Times

"Gay farce, well-plotted"
Time Magazine

"Simply terrific . . ."
N. Y. Herald-Tribune

"Hysterically hilarious..."
Denver Post

"Very funny . . ."
Cardinal Hi-Lites

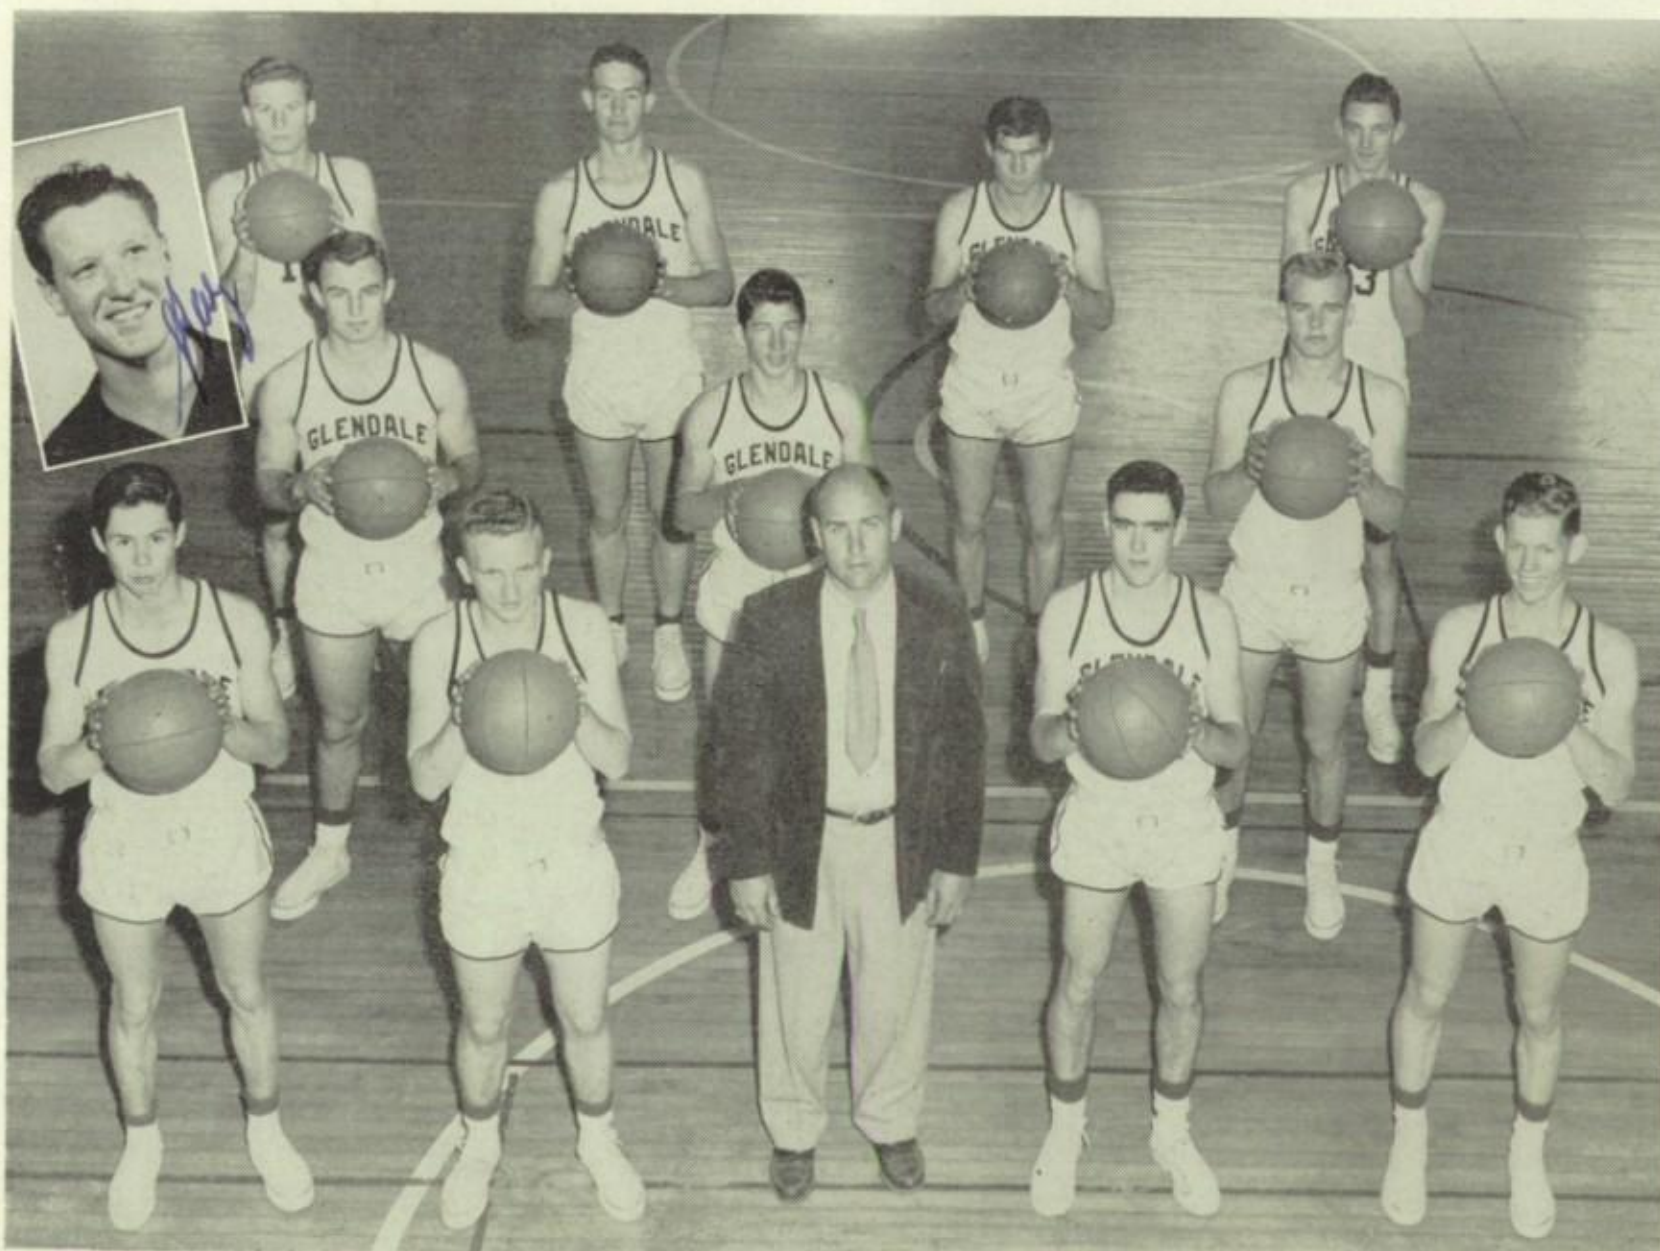

Directed by Mrs. Phyllis Hoops, the play was a smash success. Those in the cast were, way up thar on the left, Lola Wright, Steve Bagwell, and Joanne Cuddihy. Then there were, under that picture, Eva Steward, Carol Coffelt, and Elaine Keyes. Next to them are seen Jerry Middleton, Ray Stiffler, and Elaine. On the right in the set of pictures near the bottom are Tom Erbland, Eva, and Carolyn Beck.

We heard the last of football when Charley Hallmark received the trophy for outstanding player at the annual Lions Club banquet.

And Basketball Took Over

The Jayvee Hoopsters . . .

And the Freshman Squad . . .

THE FIRST DAY OF THE NEW YEAR—

Another Salad Bowl Parade and Another Prize for Glendale

The Salad Bowl Opened up the Month of

JANUARY

Which, of Course, Featured Basketball

January Brought Plenty of Action

Mr. Schmidt, faculty sponsor of the prize-winning Salad Bowl float, presents the Kiwanis award to chairman Elmer Duncan who was in charge of building. Looking on are Mr. Campbell, Eldred Terry, Lorene Heinzig, Dirl Dennis, Doris Evans, and Evelyn Heinzig, all of whom worked on the float during Christmas vacation.

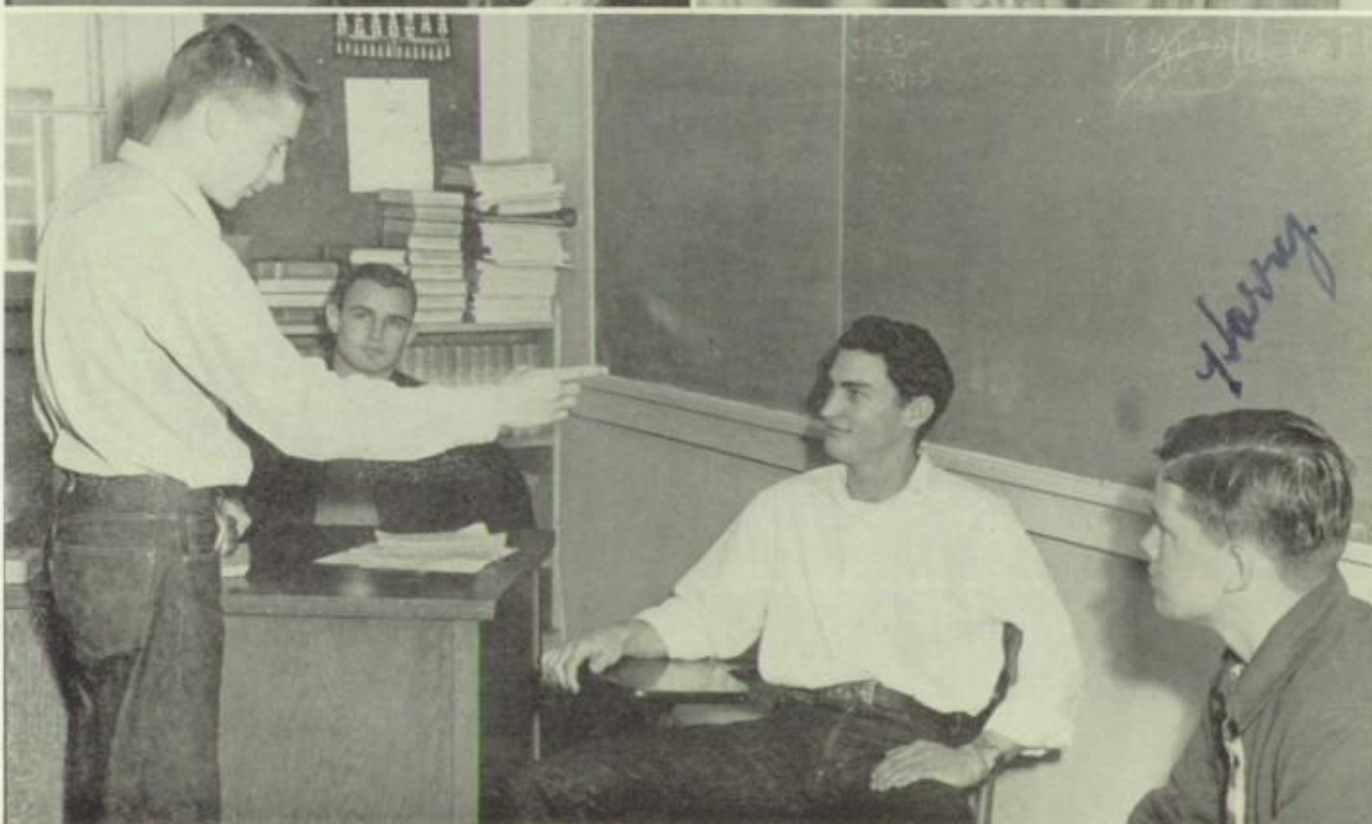

Left, Mr. Albert O. Davis, distinguished composer, conducted the Cardinal Concert Band in the best winter concert heard yet. The concert included three of Mr. Davis' own numbers and drew a record crowd.

Right, Wendy Davis, no relation to Al, also took to the stage in January for the annual Home Ec department's style show. The show was followed by a tea in the cafeteria.

Mr. Zinser's civics classes conducted mock trials to show the workings of the court system. Here prosecutor Jack Hook leans into witness Dick Amy while Judge Don Holley and defense attorney Lee Anderson look on.

In Memoriam

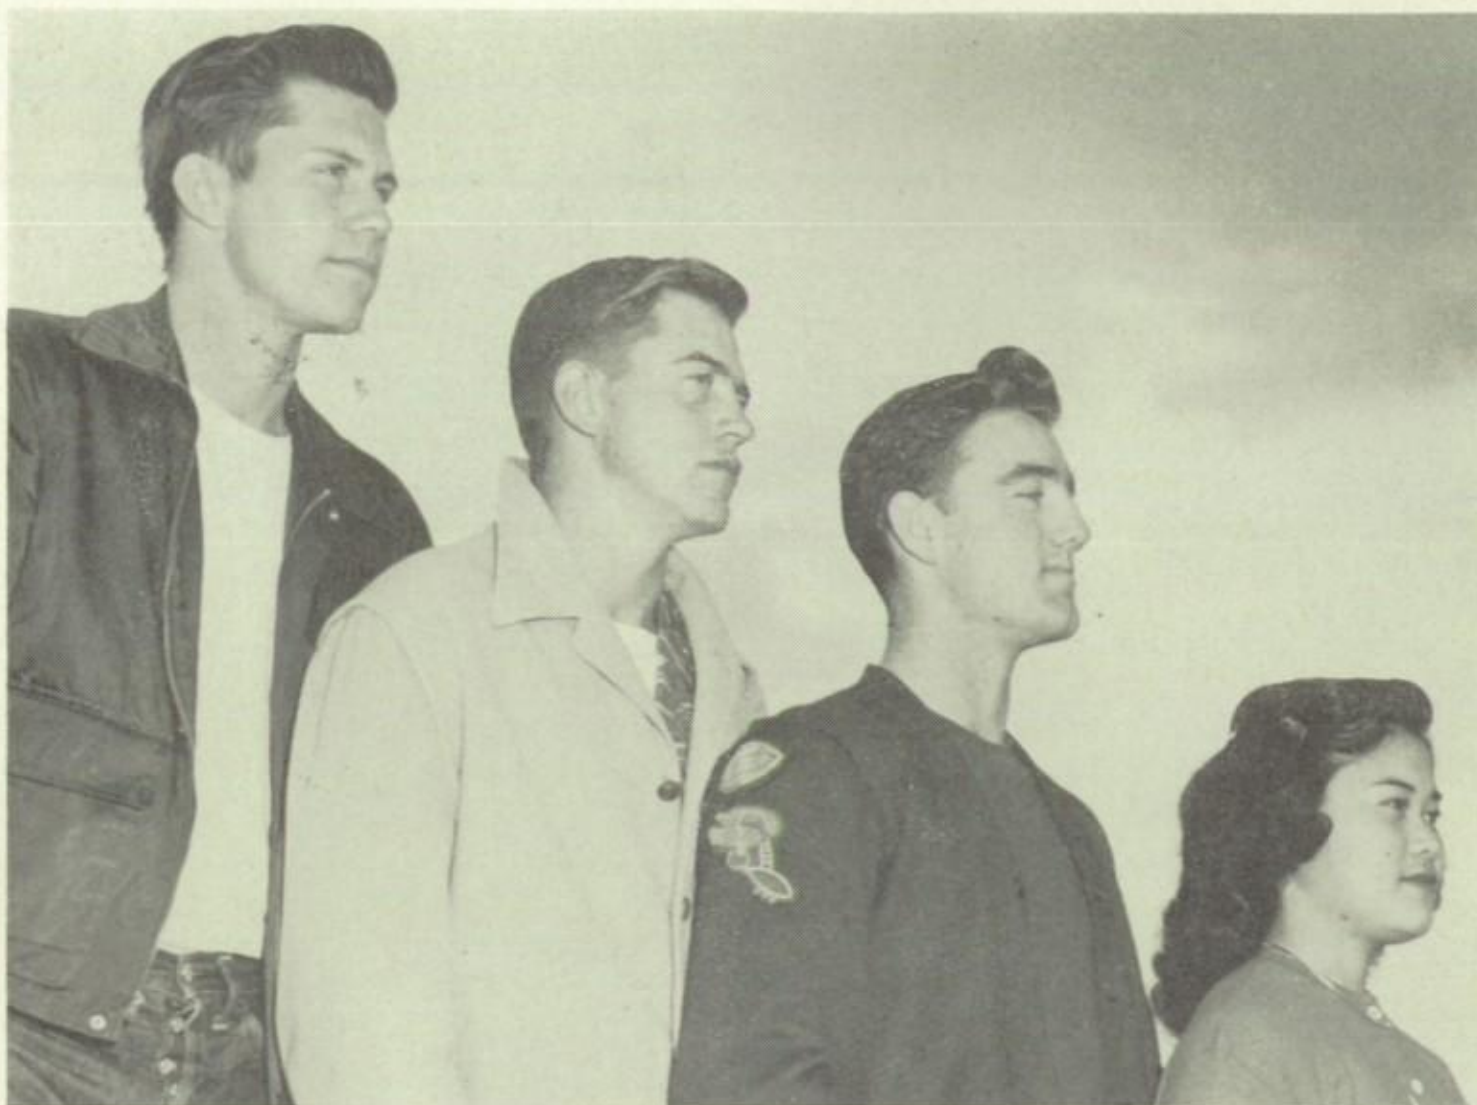

Mrs. Harriette Imes

(1894 - 1952)

Educator and Friend

On January 8, 1952, Mrs. Harriett Imes, Dean of Girls and Registrar at Glendale Union High School passed away at her home in Glendale. She had been ill for almost six months.

Mrs. Imes' death ended a career that encompassed 28 years of unselfish devotion to education and to youth. Twelve of those years were spent at Glendale Union High School. We have missed her during this past year. We shall miss her even more in the years to come.

The GUHS Usherettes Club

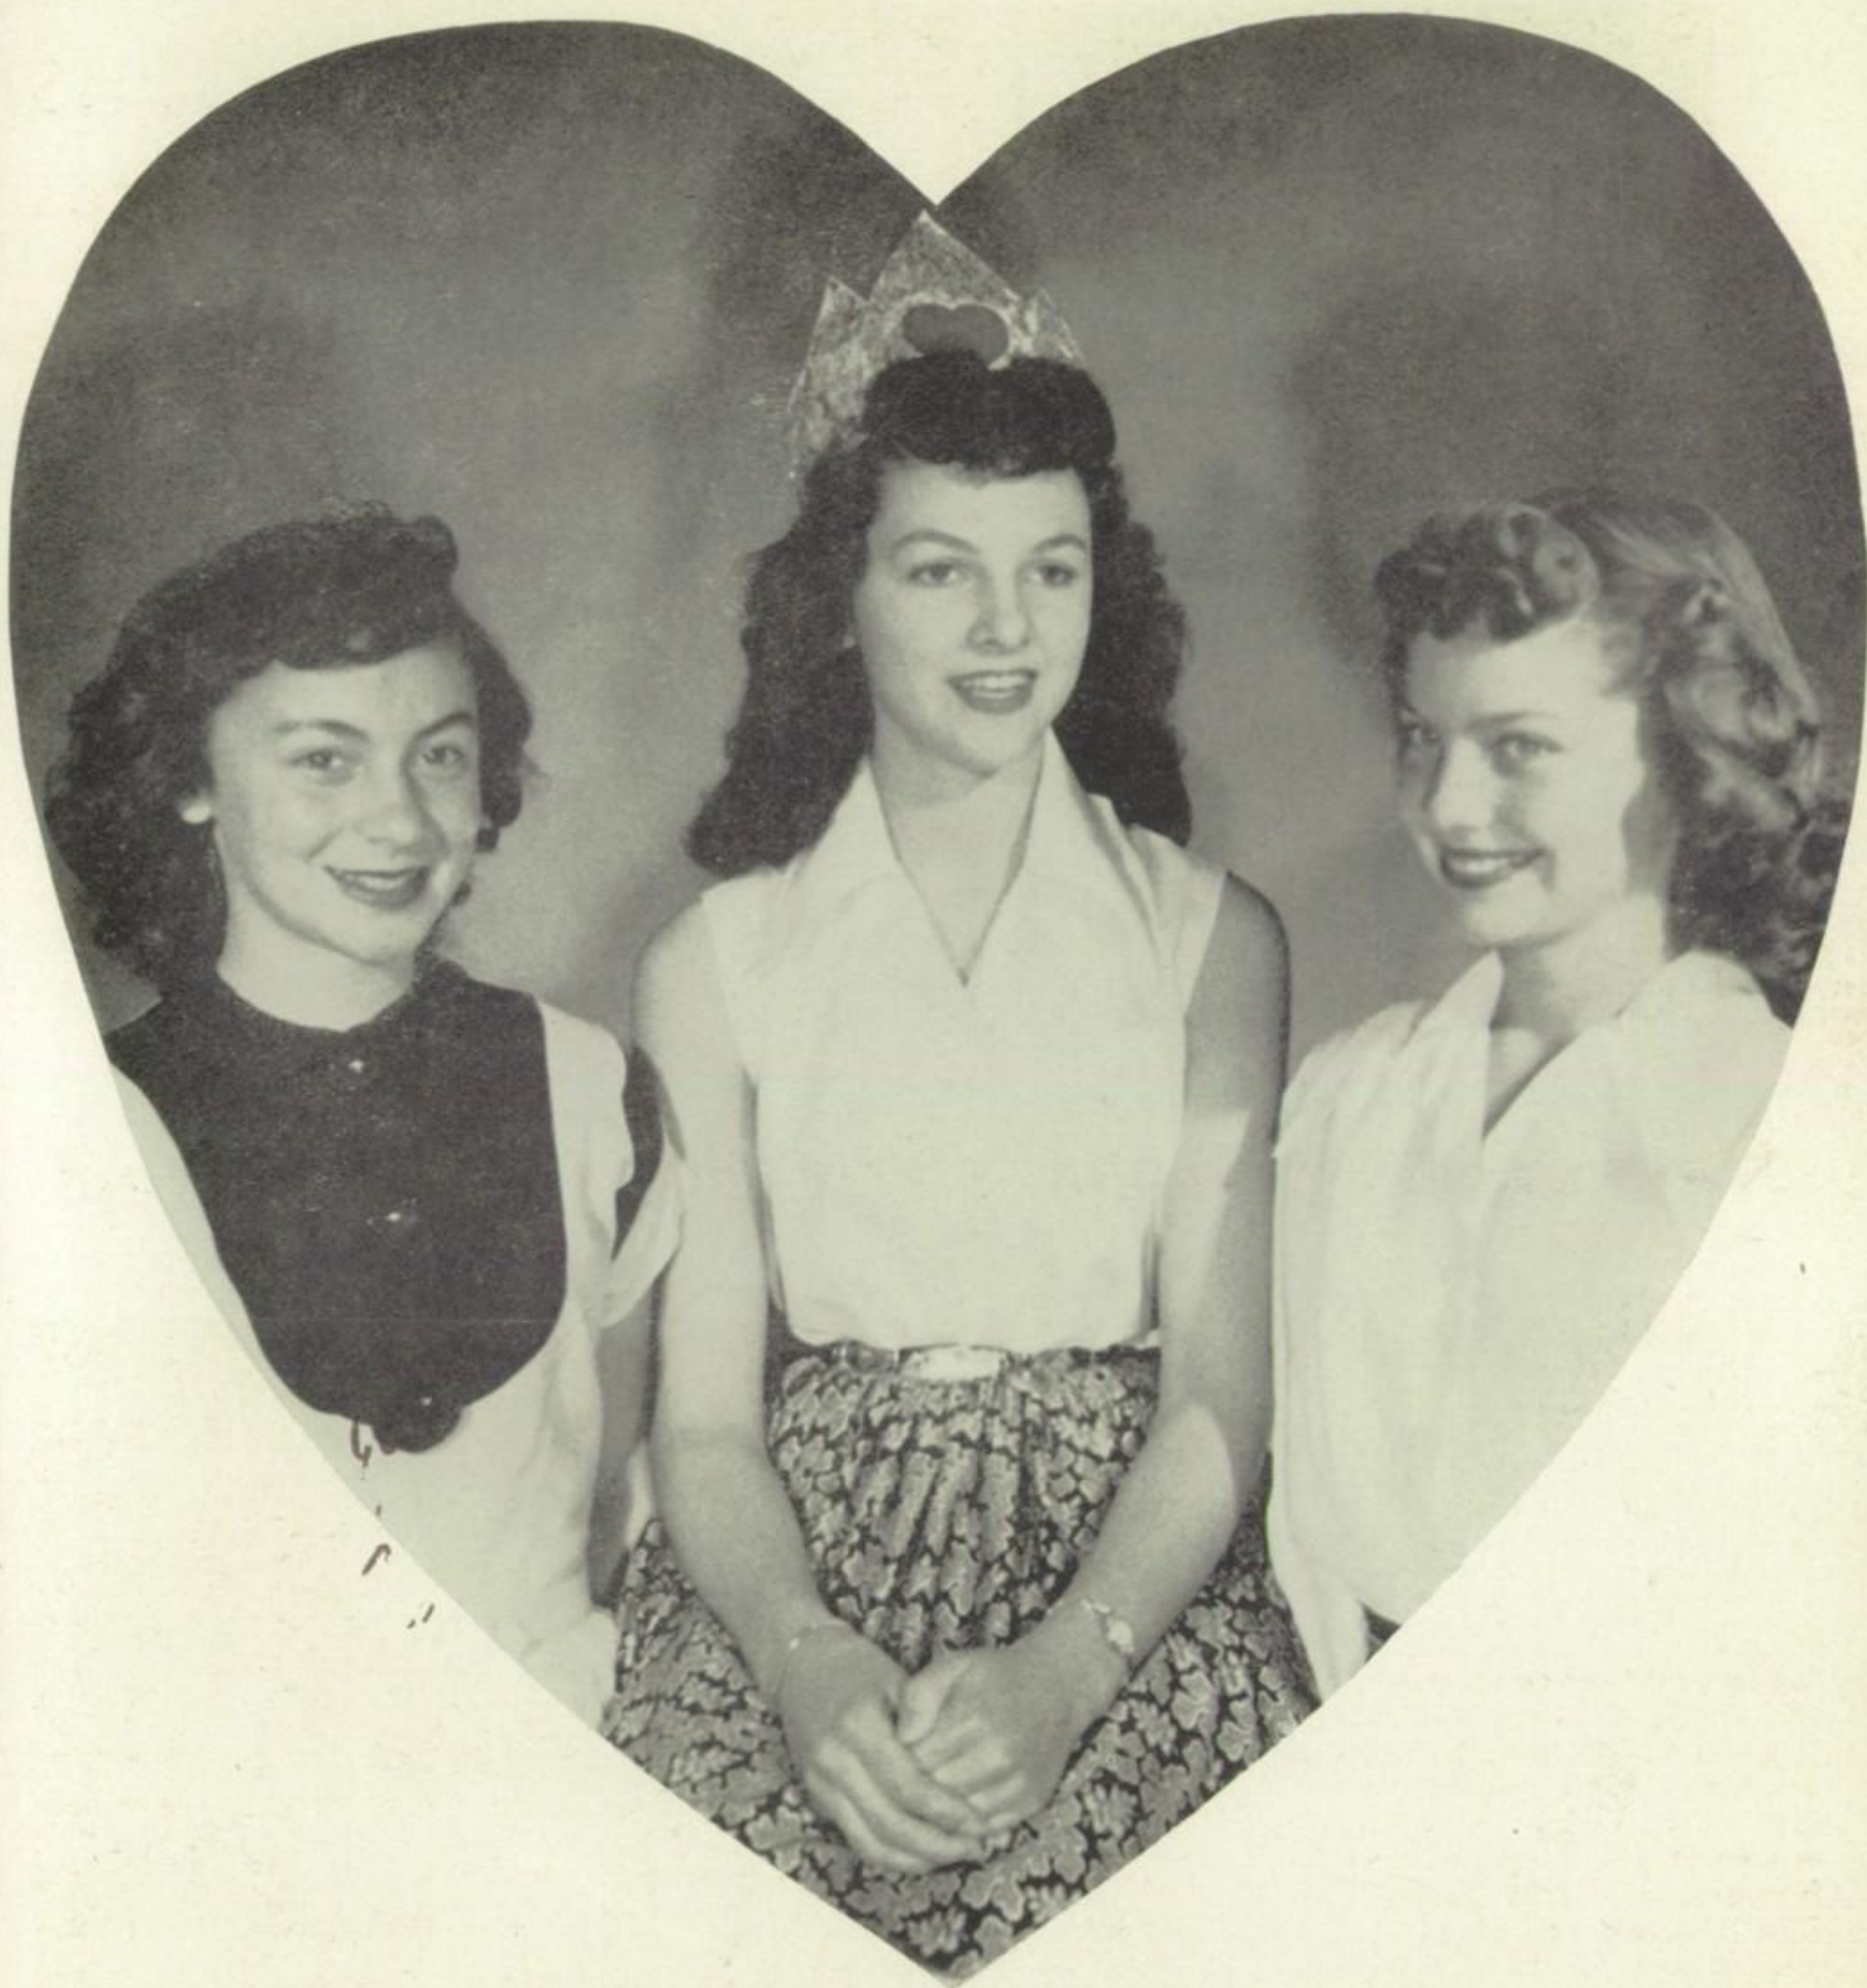

The Usherettes, a small but efficient group of girls, helped school activities—plays, football games, concerts—and served without pay. They are, front row, left to right, Marian Neill, Nellie Poglajen, and Nancy Hutchison. Rear row, sponsor Mrs. Beverly High, Arlene Craig, Dorothy Treguboff (vice-president), and Frances Nash (president).

Service Groups that Really Served

Library and Office Workers

Library and office workers are the wheels and cogs that make Glendale High function smoothly. They are, front row, left to right, Melba Johnson, Aletha Stephens, Marie Harris, Barbara Gale, and Susie Lepore. Second row, Paula Varner, Vivian Williams, Phyllis Lowe, Blanche Hand, Wanda Leach. Third row, Donna Taylor, Betty Carnett, Jeanette Reems, Joanne Haddox, Betty Carnahan. Fourth row, Dora Long, Nancy Stockham, Carol Riddle, Mary Hale, Royalie Sanchez, Shirley Marler. Rear, David Bowers, Mike Briggs, and Mrs. McGowan, librarian.

School Sweetheart Rosita Knox with attendants Annette Valenzuela and Lorene Heinzig

February . . .

MONTH OF ROMANCE

THIS Was Romance?

Why, sure—Romance, Co-Ed Week style. Donna Taylor carried her own books, and Walter Grassie's too. Then, to add to the topsy-turvy situation, she had to pay for the coke. The Girls' League-sponsored week saw the femmes pay for dates, hold doors open, ask the guys to go out, and carry books for the boys. The fun-laden week ended in the annual Sweetheart Dance and the situation returned to normal.

Studies and Fun Went Together In February

As much as Glendale students enjoyed the wealth of extra-curricular activities on campus, they still realized that class work was all-important. Here, hitting the history books hard, are Bonnie Sands, Marlene Schlagel, Iwana Shrock, Sharon Smith.

The FFA offered an unusually gay and instructive assembly. After the boys had told of their projects, the girls had a nailing race for boxes of lollipops. Amateur carpenters are Edna Thompson, Bonnie Gillum, Annette Valenzuela, Mary Priddy, Barbara Anderson.

This WAS Romance!

Why, sure—Romance, senior play style. Mrs. Phyllis Hoops chose "Mother Is a Freshman" for the upper class comedy, and for the second time this year the auditorium was packed to overflowing. Here Jo Cuddihy and Max Hyatt give each other that long, gooey look, before they fall into a clinch. Below, the mirror reflects Carroll McAllister being made up by Carol Cockrill, while Eva does her own make-up work.

The Basketball Season Came To An End

The Cards wound up on the long end of an 8-7 season and then went off to Tucson for tournament play. Both Amphi and Tucson High chose that time to get hot and the Birds went down to two defeats, and so out of the tourney.

Cards making the trip to the tourney were Gary Nolte, Gerald Sandarg, Terry Gyger, Arnulfo Cuevas, Don Mendsendick, Charley Hallmark, Bob Warren, Ken Ashinhurst, Don Holley, Ray Hoopes, and mgr. Jim Caughlin.

The Red Masque Club

Officers for the group of thespians are, left to right, Marvin Weetman, vice-president; Mrs. Phyllis Hoops, sponsor; Zoe Gocke, president; Norma Burnett, treasurer; and John Casey, secretary.

Members of the dramatics group: first row, Shirley Williamson, Margaret Maben, Ann Blakney, Loa Lamb, Marie Harris, Frances Nash, Vesta Hastings. It's Spring! . . .

Ah Yes, It's Spring . . .

When a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of what the girls have been thinking about all winter. When the seniors begin to think that maybe they won't be so happy to graduate. When it becomes just a trifle harder to concentrate on studies. When you don't know whether to go to the track meet or the ball game or the tennis match . . . Then it's spring, chum!

Record-breaker Bill Roberts clears the bar in the Invitational

March is a crowded month and what we are able to present here in the limited space of our annual is only a bare glimpse of the many events that took place at GUHS when Came March . . .

Rehearsal for the Girls' Folies

John and Tom take a lesson from Coach.

SPANISH ASSEMBLY

Joan Nicholson and John Conovaloff step off a fancy Mexican hat dance in the annual Spanish assembly, one of the highlights of the year. Mr. Arens and Miss Tressel were sponsors.

March

FFA FAIR

Keith Carter is awarded the Webster Cup for best Dairy Animal in the FFA Fair.

BAND MARCHED

The band strutted its stuff in the annual rodeo parade in Phoenix.

Days

EX-PRO TALKED FOOTBALL

The Boys' Federation heard one of the best speakers of the year when FBI Agent Fred Naumetz, shown looking over Jim Hampton's stance, talked about his pro days on the Los Angeles Rams.

and

Doings

LATIN REVIVED

The annual Latin assembly featured John Mendle and Bill Tresler decked out in Roman garb.

GIRLS KICKED

And the GAA put on one of the best shows of the year with its Girls' Follies, which played to a packed house.

By March, Mr. Robert Verne Cook had settled himself into the English teaching position he assumed at the semester.

March Marched

AND A LOT OF PEOPLE WERE ACTIVE

Bill Krauss, upper photo, exhibits Mrs. Koerner to visiting eighth-graders. Students are warned not to approach the guard rail too closely. In the cafeteria, the visiting pupils received copies of that GREAT high school newspaper, Cardinal Hi-Lites.

Right, Gladys, Lula, and Pat separate color pages for the book you're now reading. And, below, student council members are all set to take-off for the highly successful convention at Kingman.

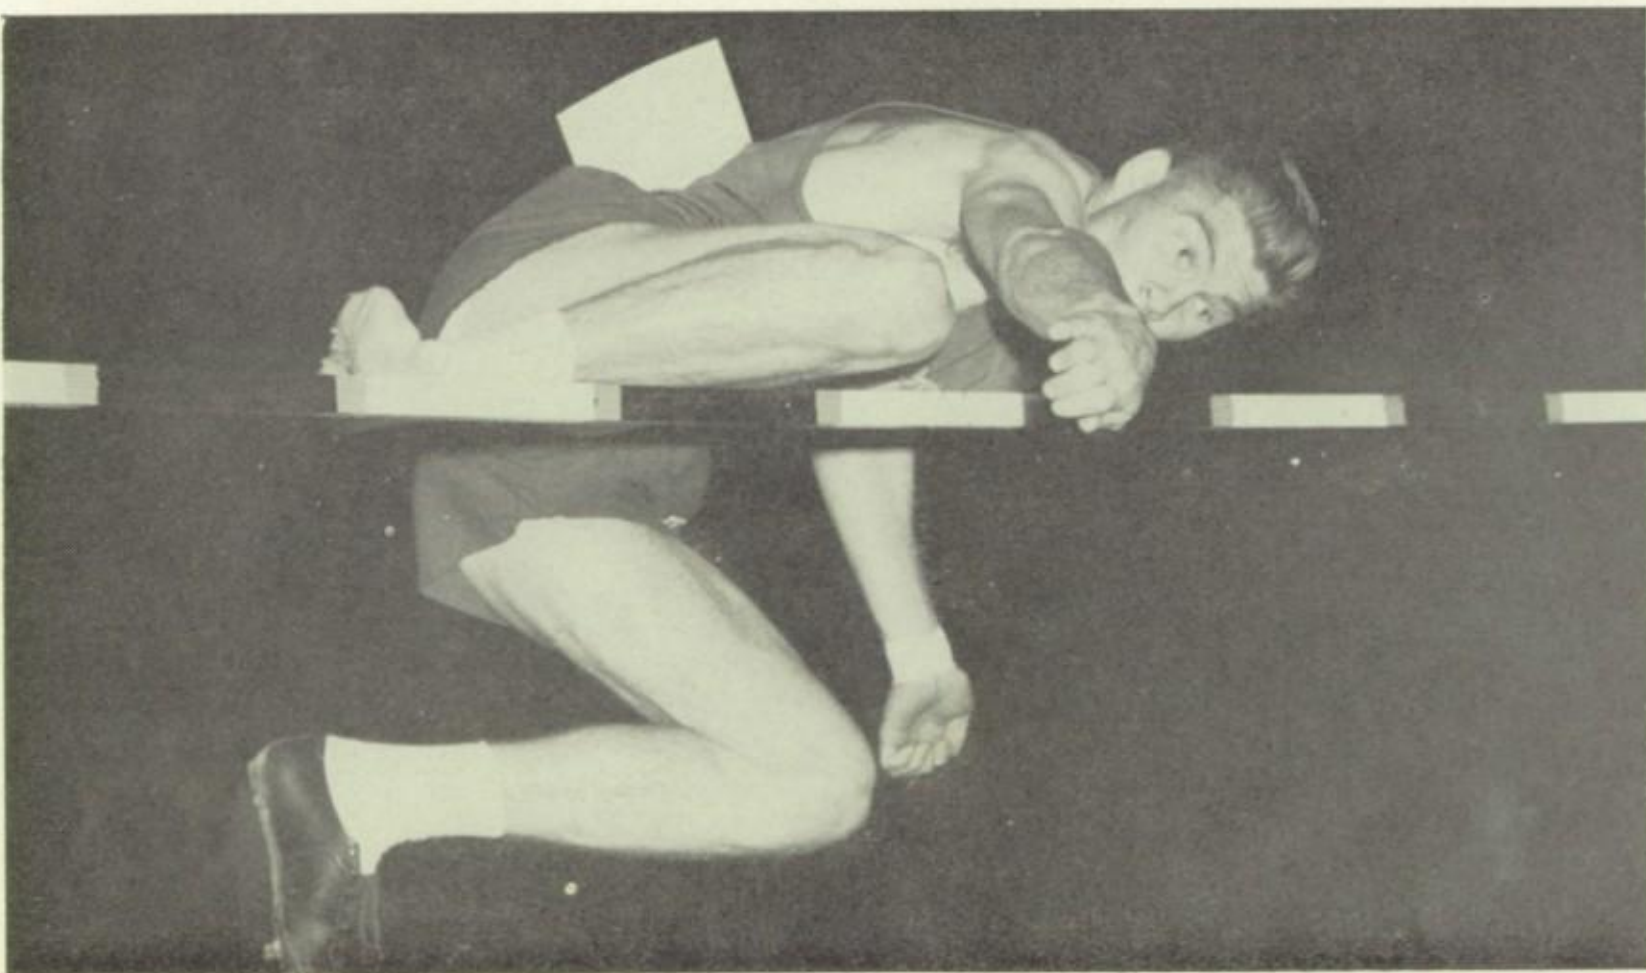

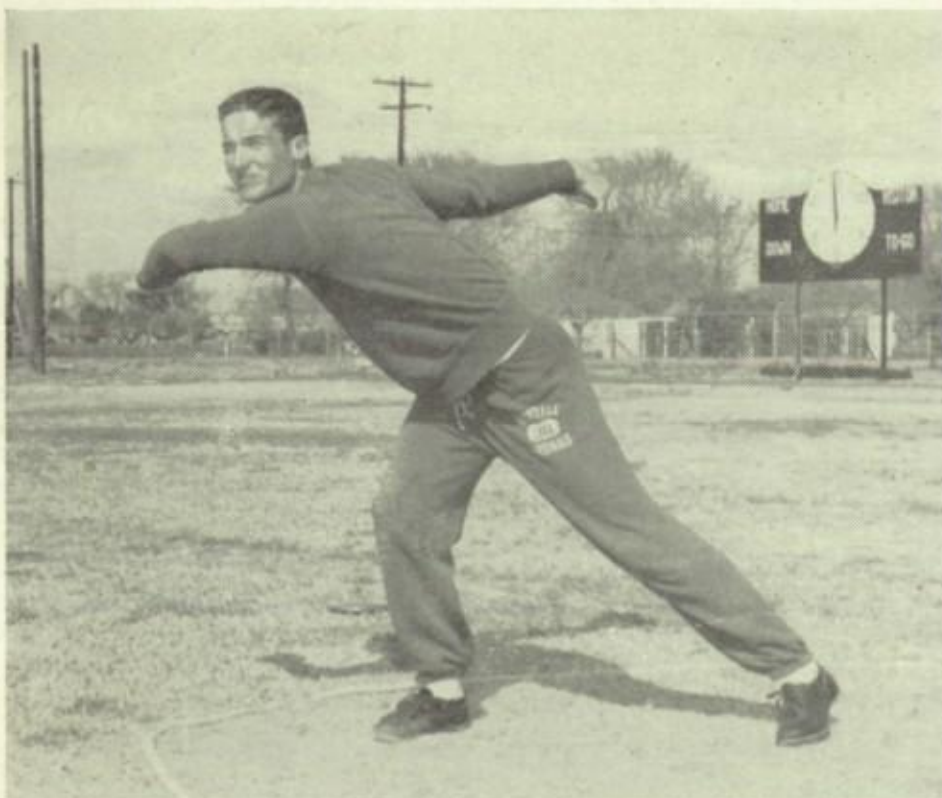

INVITATIONAL

BILL ROBERTS BROKE THE RECORD!

Highlight of this year's highly successful Glendale Invitational Track Meet was Bill Roberts' record-smashing high jump, for which he is shown getting the 20-30 Club award from Ed DeForest, right. Above, Mesa's flashing Sterling Bonner was one reason why the Jackrabbits stood out. Below, Bernie Hill was right behind Bill in the high jump in the Invitational and in every meet this year.

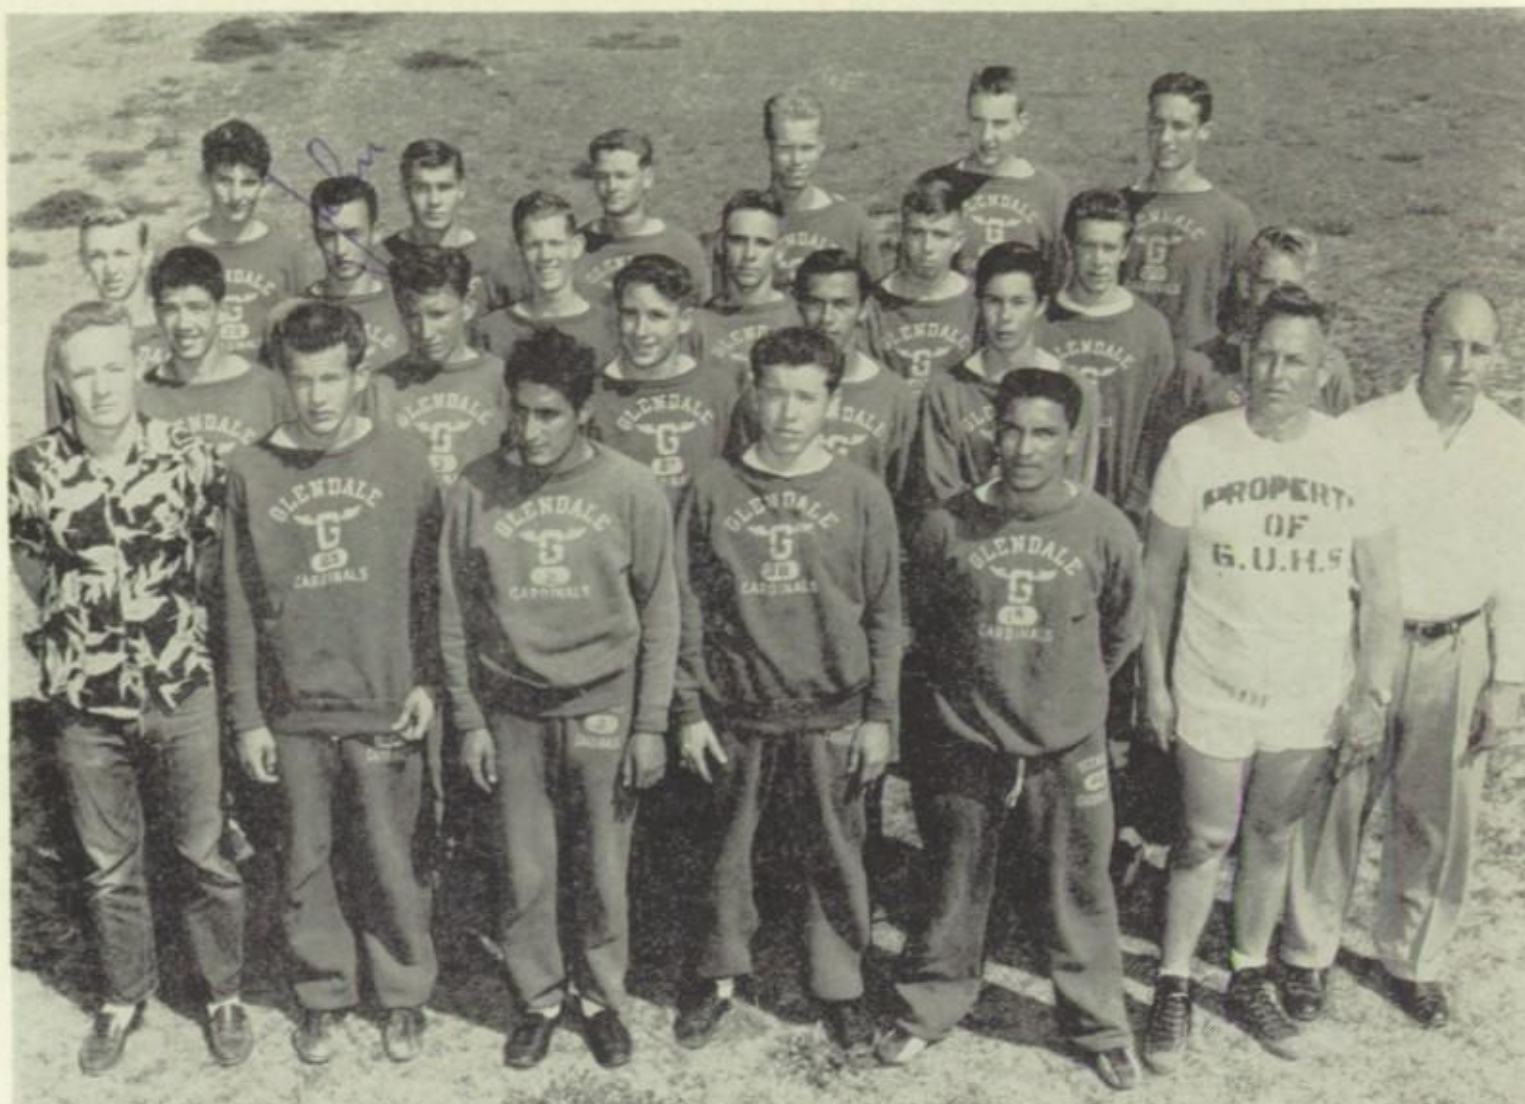

Practice and Practice!

VARSITY

First row, Max Green, mgr., Ronald Hancock, Arthur Leon, Tony Chavez, Ernie Ramirez, Coach John Whatley, Assistant Coach Earl Gieseke. To The Class Of 1952 . . .

You've finished. Your work is done.

Four years of high school—wondrous,
knowledge-filled years—are past.

Four years of friendships and experiences have flown.

But, like the sunset at the end of day, your graduation tells only of a new day to follow.

Tomorrow's coming up. New work, new joy, new friends, new places.

Tomorrow faces you.

Tomorrow. . . .

"Most Likely to Succeed"

Establishing and maintaining a friendly, business-like relationship with a good bank is important to young men and women, particularly to those who aspire to become tomorrow's business and professional leaders.

These young men and women who establish a banking connection by opening a savings account and adding to it regularly...who consult the bank about their plans for the future...who win and keep the confidence of their banker...have gained a valuable, life-long ally.

The Valley National Bank cordially welcomes the accounts and friendships of all sincere, ambitious young men and women.

ESTIMATES CHEERFULLY GIVEN

SUCCESS TO THE 1952 GRADUATES

A stylized, black and white illustration of a Leonard's department store building. The building is a long, rectangular structure with a grid-like facade. The name "Leonard's" is written in a large, elegant script font on the upper part of the facade, appearing twice on the visible side. Below the main facade, there are several large windows or display cases, some of which are filled with various items, possibly clothing or accessories. The building is set against a dark, cloud-like background. The overall style is reminiscent of mid-20th-century graphic design.
